Henry. 1911. Letter from Henry to his Sister. 1 p.

Keywords: Henry/ Indiana 57th Infantry/ Henry/ Correspondence/ Hospitals/ General Hospital No. 3, Lookout Mountain, TN/ Lookout Mountain - General Hospital No. 3

Notes: Henry appears to have composed this letter while in General Hospital No. 3 at Lookout Mountain, TN. Although the name of the author does not appear in the text of this letter, because it was attached to a previous letter by Henry in the file folder and the handwriting appears to be identical, Henry is almost certainly the author of this letter. Henry states that he has been in the hospital two months and is not recovering well. He notes that he previously sent a letter to his sister from which he has not received a reply.

———. Unknown. Letter from Henry to Sister and Children. 6 p.

Keywords: Henry/ 57th Indiana Infantry/ Correspondence/ Hospitals/ Hospital No. 3, Lookout Mountain, TN

Notes: Henry appears to have composed this letter while in Hospital Number 3 at Lookout Mountain, TN. Henry writes to inform his sister of his whereabouts. He explains that he became ill after fighting at "Rockey Faced Mountain," "Reesacka" and another unnamed battle. He quotes the text of the song "Who Will Care for Mother Now."

Keywords: Smith, William/ Smith, Nancy/ 57th Indiana Infantry/ Redoubt Johnson/ Fortress Rosecrans/ Correspondence

Notes: It seems that Smith composed these letters while stationed at Redoubt Johnson, Fortress Rosecrans.

Abstract: Smith discusses the health of his sister and himself. He also identifies patriotism as his continuing motive for military service and professes to hate any of his relatives who are not for the Union. He encourages his sister to pursue an education. Smith notes that Grant has taken twenty thousand prisoners and sixty pieces of artillery and that he has viewed many prisoners being sent to the North.
